PROJECTS

Tally — Personal Finance Tracker

May 2026 - Present

tally-issac.vercel.app | github.com/issac-23/tally

- Built a full-stack web app in Next.js and TypeScript that projects how long a user's savings will last at their current spending rate, with a 12-month runway chart and color-coded status indicator
- Implemented Google OAuth authentication and per-user data isolation using Postgres Row Level Security in Supabase, ensuring no cross-user data access
- Wrote unit tests in Vitest covering runway math, savings projection, and category aggregation; caught and resolved a timezone bug affecting UTC-parsed dates
- Deployed on Vercel with auto-deploys on push; 50+ commits across the project
